

ELLE BEAUTY GENIUS AWARDS MAKEUP

CLASSICS
MAJOR

DEE DEE
DORZEE

SPECIALTY: "We wanted the elegance of a '60s Marilyn Monroe," says Paris-based Dorzee, who tweaked iconic makeup looks for the photos on these pages. "But liner, red lips, blush—all on one face? Too much!"

SECRET WEAPON: A modern cat eye is "superthin and really close to the lash line," says Dorzee, who smudgeproofs by "applying concealer and a light dusting of powder before liner."

QUICK FIX: A premakeup face massage "activates circulation and makes moisturizer sink in," Dorzee says. "Everything I put on afterward stays smooth and moist."

